

New Jersey's Do Not Call legislation has been a godsend for our family time, dinner time and general home time. We now get to enjoy the quiet of our evenings without constant noise and interruptions, something everyone should be entitled to in their own home. Please do not force NJ to relax their legislation it is in the consumer's best interest. Thank you, Belinda Wilson